Today was my first outing as an OYBC member and it was amazing. I met the founders of the Rogue Birders named Jeff Peters, Alex Eberts, and Chris Collins. We went to a place called The Wilds. We mostly drove around, but we went outside to. I even got to go to a Rhinoceros barn and pet baby Rhinos!!! They were soooooo cute!

We saw lots of birds like Robins, Mourning Doves, Goldfinches, and Kestrels. We also saw some Trumpeter Swans. I got 3 life-birds. They were a Broughtleged Hawk, a Golden Eagle, and a Short ear Owl! I am excited that I got 3 life-birds. I'm also excited for our next outing!
